TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

NOBORIBETSU

- ◆ Noboribetsu Jogokudani - A dramatic volcanic valley formed after past eruptions, featuring layers of grey and brown rock with geothermal steam constantly rising from the ground, creating a landscape that resembles "hell on earth." It is also one of the main sources of Noboribetsu's hot spring waters, offering a mysterious and awe-inspiring natural spectacle.
- ◆ Noboribetsu Marine Park Nixe - A Nordic-style marine theme park inspired by Denmark's Egeskov Castle. Inside, the Crystal Tower exhibits colourful tropical fish, including the famous Napoleon fish. Visitors can stroll through the underwater tunnel and enjoy the popular "Penguin Parade" (Subject to weather conditions).

LAKE TOYA

- ◆ Bear Ranch - Home to over a hundred purebred Hokkaido brown bears, the largest wild mammals on the island. Visitors can feed the bears and watch their adorable gestures as they stand up and wave for food — an experience both fun and heartwarming.

OTARU

- ◆ Otaru Canal - Built in 1914, this historic canal is flanked by stone warehouses and nostalgic gas lamps, creating a romantic old-town charm. At dusk, the reflection of lights on the water transforms the canal into one of Otaru's most photogenic sights.
- ◆ Kitaichi Glass Otaru - A representative glass workshop of Hokkaido, converted from historic warehouses. It showcases exquisite, handcrafted glassware, with beautifully illuminated interiors—especially the oil lamps—that create a magical, storybook-like atmosphere. A perfect spot for photos and unique souvenirs.

FURANO

- ◆ Farm Tomita - Famous for its vibrant flower fields, the farm is popular even outside the lavender season. Flowering periods vary from June to September: canola, poppies, and lupines bloom in June; lilies in July; and sunflowers, salvias, and cosmos from August to September. Flower conditions are seasonal; if the flower season has ended, the visit will be replaced with Shikisai no Oka.

SAPPORO

- ◆ Shiroi Koibito Park - A European-style theme park dedicated to Hokkaido's famous confectionery "Shiroi Koibito." Featuring chocolate factory, exhibition areas, and landscape gardens, it offers a charming, fairytale-like atmosphere—ideal for families and dessert lovers.
- ◆ Tanukikoji Shopping Street - The oldest and largest shopping arcade in Hokkaido, where tradition meets modernity. Lined with century-old stores and trendy boutiques, it offers everything from local delicacies and cosmetics to souvenirs — a must-visit landmark for every traveller.
