TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

BROMO

- ◆ Mount Bromo - An active volcano located in East Java, Indonesia, within the Bromo Tengger Semeru National Park. With an elevation of about 2,329 meters, the crater has a north-south diameter of approximately 800 meters. It is renowned for its dramatic volcanic landscape and breathtaking sunrises. The crater is often enveloped in mist, creating a mysterious and captivating scene. Visitors typically head to sunrise viewpoints to witness the stunning view of sunlight illuminating the crater and surrounding terrain. Mount Bromo is a popular tourist destination in East Java, attracting many adventurers and photographers.

SURABAYA

- ◆ Surabaya - Indonesia's second-largest city, located in East Java. It serves as a major economic and trade hub with a bustling port and vibrant commercial activity. Known for its rich history and cultural heritage, Surabaya features landmarks such as the Heroes Monument and the House of Sampoerna. The city also offers diverse culinary experiences and lively markets. With its blend of modern development and historical charm, Surabaya plays a key role in Indonesia's economic and cultural landscape.
- ◆ Santerra De Laponte - a European-themed garden attraction located in Batu Highland, inspired by architectural styles from the Netherlands, France, Italy, Korea, and Japan. The park features vibrant colorful buildings, landscaped flower gardens, fairytale-like houses, and themed zones, offering numerous picturesque photo spots. It is one of the most popular Instagrammable destinations in Malang and Batu, ideal for couples, families, and photography lovers to enjoy a charming European village atmosphere.
