ROME

- Trevi Fountain - Is a fountain in the Trevi district in Rome, Italy, designed by Italian architect Nicola Salvi and completed by Pietro Bracci. It is the largest Baroque fountain in the city and one of the most famous fountains in the world.
- Roman Forum - Is a rectangular forum (plaza) surrounded by the ruins of several important ancient government buildings at the center of the city of Rome.
- Colosseum - Built of concrete and stone, it was the largest amphitheater of the Roman Empire, and is considered one of the greatest works of Roman architecture and engineering. It is the largest amphitheater in the world.

PISA

- Leaning Tower - Pisa is a city in Italy's Tuscany region best known for its iconic Leaning Tower. Already tilting when it was completed in 1372, the 56m white-marble cylinder is the bell tower of the Romanesque, striped-marble cathedral that rises next to it in the Piazza dei Miracoli.

CINQUE TERRE

- Cinque Terre - which means Five Lands, comprise the five small coastal villages of Riomaggiore, Manarola, Corniglia, Vernazza and Monterosso located in the Italian region of Liguria. They are listed on the UNESCO World Heritage List.
- Monterosso al Mare - is a town and comune in the province of La Spezia, part of the region of Liguria. It is one of the five villages in Cinque Terre. The area is famous for its many lemon trees and it is also renowned for its white wines, grapes, and olives.
- Vernazza - is one of the 5 centuries-old villages that make up the Cinque Terre, on northwest Italy's rugged Ligurian coast. Colorful houses surround its small marina. The Santa Margherita di Antiochia Church has a bell tower topped by an elegant cupola. Clinging to the rocks, Doria Castle is a medieval defensive structure with a cylindrical tower.
- Corniglia - is a frazione of the comune of Vernazza in the province of La Spezia, Liguria, northern Italy. Corniglia is not directly adjacent to the sea. To reach Corniglia, it is necessary to climb the Lardarina leads to the village.
- Manarola - is a small town, a frazione of the comune of Riomaggiore, in the province of La Spezia, Liguria, northern Italy. It is the second-smallest of the famous Cinque Terre towns frequented by tourists. Most of the houses are bright and colourful. Manarola's primary industries have traditionally been fishing and wine-making. The Via dell'Amore ("Love's rail") is a path connecting Riomaggiore to its frazione Manarola, also part of the Cinque Terre.
- Riomaggiore - is a village and comune in the province of La Spezia, situated in a small valley in the Liguria region of Italy. It is the first of the Cinque Terre one meets when travelling north from La Spezia.

FLORENCE

- Piazzale Michelangelo - is a square with a panoramic view of Florence.
- Piazza Signoria - Is an L-shaped square in front of the Palazzo Vecchio in Florence, Italy. It is the focal point of the origin and of the history of the Florentine Republic and still maintains its reputation as the political hub of the city.
- Giotto's Bell Tower - Is a free-standing campanile that is part of the complex of buildings that make up Florence Cathedral on the Piazza del Duomo in Florence, Italy.
