BUCHAREST

- Bucharest - Located in the southeast of Romania, nicknamed as "Little Paris". It is capital of Romania and the largest city in Romania, the political, economic and cultural and commercial center of the country. It is also one of the largest, most modern and fastest growing international metropolises in Europe, the sixth largest city in the European Union.
- The Village Museum - One of the main attractions of Bucharest in Romania and the first open-air ethnographic museums in the world, offers a panorama of Romania's erstwhile villages, consisting of old traditional houses gathered from all the regions of the country. The different architectural styles can provide you with a better understanding of the diversity of Romania one century ago. It is also one of the unique museums to recreate the atmosphere of the traditional Romanian villages, reconstructed here completely with churches, a windmill, and a watermill and animated by many folk arts and crafts.
- The Palace of the Parliament - One of the world's Most impressive architectural and historical sites in the capital of Romania. Built in the 1980s during the era of the late Communist leader Nicolae Ceausescu, the palace is one of the largest administrative buildings in the world, it is also the second largest building in the world after the U.S Pentagon and the largest congressional building according to the Guinness Book of World Records. (Close if clashes with another event)
- Old Town - The Historical Center of Bucharest, or the Old Town, as the locals habitually refer to it, is one of the most beloved and attractive areas in the Romanian capital. Discover the striking architecture and legendary history of the Old Town, and know more about Bucharest's communist history as you stroll through Victory Square and visit Revolution Square.

SINAIA

- Peles Castle - This 19th-century castle was commissioned by King Carol and it is a masterpiece of German new-Renaissance architecture, considered by many people to be one of the Most Stunning Castles in Europe and known as the Sixth Most Magnificent Castle in the world.

BRASOV

- Brasov - is an ancient city in central Romania that can be traced back to the Stone Age. It was an important trading station city in Europe in the 13th century. It preserved many Gothic buildings and is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- The Museum of the First Romanian School - A place that honours education in Romania. The school dates to 1495 and remained used as a school for almost 400 years. It was converted into a museum in 1964. The museum holds more than 6,000 early Slavic and Romanian books.
- St Nicholas Church - The church was built some time during the 14th century. It was later rebuilt out of stone in 1495, and then further renovated with the help of Neagoe Basarab, the Prince of Wallachia from 1512 to 1521.
- Catherine's Gate - One of the oldest, but certainly the most beautiful gate, which has retained its original appearance until today. It was the only gate that pierced the western walls of the fortress.
- The Black Church - This medieval church over Brasov's Old Town, stretching high above its sea of red-orange roofs. Though its name, Biserica Neagră (the Black Church) may seem dark and foreboding, the building is nothing to fear. Step inside, and you'll find a magnificent trove of cultural treasures nested within the enormous space.
