TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

HA LONG

- ◆ Ha Long Bay - Located in northern Vietnam, is a UNESCO Natural Heritage Site recognized in 1994. The bay is famous for its emerald waters, nearly 2,000 limestone islands, and spectacular caves. A half-day boat trip offers stunning views of these unique rock formations and a chance to explore its dramatic caves.

HA NOI

- ◆ Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum - After President Ho Chi Minh passed away, a granite mausoleum was built to keep and display his embalmed body. Its design mixes the style of Lenin's Mausoleum in Moscow with traditional Vietnamese architecture. Today, it's not only a place to learn about Vietnam's history, but also a symbol of national pride for the Vietnamese people.
- ◆ Ba Dinh Square - It is a famous square in Hanoi, where President Ho Chi Minh read the Proclamation of Independence, officially founding the Democratic Republic of Vietnam in 1945.
- ◆ Hanoi Old Quarter - Known as the "36 Ancient Streets," this historic district earned its name from the old guild streets, each once dedicated to a specific trade such as silverwork, paper, or silk. The quarter still preserves its traditional layout, with narrow, bustling alleyways full of life and history. Today, it blends the old and new, featuring craft shops, souvenir stores, and local artists' studios, offering a vibrant glimpse into Hanoi's cultural heritage.
- ◆ Hoan Kiem Lake - Also known as the "Lake of the Returned Sword," this natural freshwater lake is one of Vietnam's most significant cultural and historical landmarks. Renowned for its scenic beauty, the lake is surrounded by charming French colonial architecture. According to legend, King Lê Lợi returned a divine sword to a sacred turtle here, giving the lake its name.

NINH BINH

- ◆ Tam Coc - A tranquil natural gem in Ninh Binh, Vietnam, where limestone karsts rise beside lush rice paddies. Enjoy a leisurely boat ride along winding waterways that pass through three natural caves adorned with stalactites. Scenic reflections, dramatic cliffs, and serene waters create a picture-perfect landscape, earning Tam Cốc its name, "Three Caves."
